KEYPOINTS

KILL YOUR MONEY FEAR

After step 2: LIBERATION of the B.L.I.S.S. METHOD, you understand completely and handle life by these key points I explain in this E-book. So what does this truly mean? Let's dive in!

SWITCH NOW OR STAY STUCK & POOR

Start embracing the concept that material wealth holds NO VALUE in the end by encouraging the pursuit of meaningful experiences and memories for lasting fulfillment is a huge crucial key point!

KEYPOINT 1 ▶

KILL YOUR MONEY FEAR

MYTHS YOU HOLD ON TO:

You're broke because you value things over experiences you continue to prioritize material possessions over enriching experiences, when you don't stop it today, you'll forever live in the poverty of unfulfilled memories and missed opportunities.

When you chase after material wealth or money at the expense of life's experiences, you're trading the richness of living for the hollowness of possessions that hold no meaning, you just suffocate this unhappy void with any material stuff you think you need.

You'll never be rich if you keep valuing possessions over experiences—wake up! Everyone wants quality experiences in life. You always sell value! By the value you deliver as your authentic self, not only by the money you receive for your service but also in love, you'll attract men who truly value & cherish you!

KILL YOUR MONEY FEAR

REAL-LIFE EXAMPLE:

Sara, a successful businesswoman

- buried in work
- swamped with tasks
- too many responsibilities & projects

I asked her why she was accumulating material possessions. And asked her directly if it was to compensate for your lack of time to enjoy life outside of work, attempting to find happiness and fulfillment through material possessions. To make up for the emptiness caused by not having time for enjoyable moments outside of your work?

She noticed that despite her ability to afford desired goods without financial strain. She didn't feel free, afraid to NOT respond to every trigger she received, afraid to let go of her old work attitude, and grind to labor, while she didn't have experiences that evoked feelings of contentment & freedom, to follow that happy spark inside her heart.

KEYPOINT 3

KILL YOUR MONEY FEAR

REAL-LIFE EXAMPLE:

KEY POINTS WE WORKED ON:

- Misaligned priorities: starting from value first, enriching experiences.
- Emotional emptiness: by addressing the void towards growth, joy & connection.
- Loneliness: by investing in deeper relationships & how experiences look & feel like.
- Freedom: by analyzing beliefs that blocked emotional and personal growth, leaving life feeling unfulfilled.

RESULTS SHE NOW EXPERIENCES

1. Deeper relationships: enhanced her sense of belonging.
2. Increased emotional fulfillment: she feels more satisfaction & purpose in life.
3. Enhanced self-worth: knowing her value fosters confidence and inner fulfillment, and she attracts abundance in love & money.
4. Financial alignment: By aligning her finances with her purpose and emotional well-being, she has more life & profit.

💡 1 tip of the veil?

CUT TIES OR YOU STAY IMPRISONED

I found the magic key in establishing self-worth and self-confidence first. You do this by starting to ask yourself, what true comfort beyond material possessions is for you. You have to cut ties with unnecessary attachments. Abundance is not just about material wealth, but also about having the resources, ideas, opportunities, and support necessary to fulfill your intentions and desires in the moment. It is about being in alignment (thoughts, feelings & behavior!) with your true desires and intentions to become a REAL Match for your Wealth.

KEYPOINT 5 ▶

KILL YOUR MONEY FEAR

UNFORTUNATLY THAT IS NOT ENOUGH!

What you are asking is step 5, the moment you killed your money fear and you fully integrated it, living it. Serendipity shows up, magic shows up. To get there you don't start at step 5 but at step 1! Not even at step 2 to liberate it. You feel easy & peaceful to start with and let that compound into the future! How does that look like? The solution is:

THE 5-STEP B.L.I.S.S METHOD

Where you learn how to BREATHE in step 1 = STOP wearing 9 hats! LIBERATE in step 2 = CUT ties with possessions that are holding you back and SWITCH to value. INVIGORATE in step 3 = PREVENT that your needs are ignored forever! STAMINA at step 4 = you stopped being RIGED about your bucket list, and at step 5, SERENDIPITY = You NEVER worry about money again, you killed your fear of money!

FACTS

KILL YOUR MONEY FEAR

STILL FEEL FEAR?

Fear keeps you busy, busy is based on scarcity, it is better to check your energy_piranhas, surrender to life that has something else for you in store, and recognize when your bucket is full, but you can change your response that will trigger a different dynamic and result.

EFFECTIVE EXERCISE TO ELIMINATE FEAR:

1. Identify the Barrier: Write down one specific fear or thought that is keeping you from relaxing.
2. Experience the Fear: Schedule a 15-30 minute time to do nothing and consciously feel the fear or resistance that comes up.
3. Ask Yourself: "What will really happen if I let go of this fear?"
4. Accept: Acknowledge the fear without judgment and remind yourself that it is okay to relax and feel free.
5. Repeat: this exercise weekly, to strengthen your ability to let go.
6. Think Ahead: Consider alternatives and think about what you would do if the fear did come true and how you would handle it.
